This two bedroom, two and one half bath first floor condominium unit with harbor views is located in the heart of the historic district, yet feels like it could be a country estate. The property has a walking easement to access Main Street via a brick walkway that is tucked between The Cavalier Gallery and The Old Even Keel Restaurant. The property offers the buyer ultimate privacy, yet easy access to town.

Basement: Small basement for mechanics. Oil tank and furnace.

1st Floor: The high ceilings that are located throughout the first floor of this unit lend to the old mansion feel. There is a large living room with a wood burning fireplace and built in bookcases. In addition, the sun filled parlor that faces the harbor is a perfect place to read and relax. The spacious dining room with fireplace and bay window is a perfect place to entertain summer guests. Large eat in kitchen and half bath.

2nd Floor: The second floor can be accessed by a spiral staircase or through the common staircase to the second floor. The master bedroom has a large walk in closet, full shower bath, wood burning fireplace and views of the Unitarian Church. The second guest bedroom has a full bath and a large closet with views over the manicured grounds to Main Street
